DEPUTY CLERK

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF UTAH, CENTRAL DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

PAMELA ACKERMAN,

Defendant.

Case No. 2:06 CR 00240 DB

STATEMENT BY DEFENDANT IN ADVANCE OF PLEA OF GUILTY

Chief Judge Dee Benson

I hereby acknowledge and certify that I have been advised of and that I understand the following facts and rights, and that I have had the assistance of counsel in reviewing, explaining and completing this form:

1. The nature of the charges against me have been explained. I have had an opportunity to discuss the nature of the charges with my attorney. I understand the charges and what the government is required to prove in order to convict me.

2. I know that the maximum possible penalty provided by law for Count Six of the Indictment, a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1623(a), False Material Declaration Before a Grand Jury, is a term of imprisonment of up to five years, a fine of up to $250,000, and a term of supervised release of up to three years. I understand that if I violate any of the conditions of supervised release that may be imposed, I can be returned to prison for the length of time provided in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3583(e)(3). Additionally, I know the court is required to impose an assessment in the amount of $100.00 for each offense of conviction.

3. I know that the sentencing procedures in this case and the ultimate sentence will be determined pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), and that the Court must consider, but is not bound by, the United States Sentencing Guidelines, in determining my sentence. I have discussed these facts with my attorney. I further know that the final Guidelines calculation by the Court may differ from any calculation the United States, my attorney, or I may have made, and I will not be able to withdraw my plea in spite of that fact.

4. I know that I can be represented by an attorney at every stage of the proceeding, and I know that if I cannot afford an attorney, one will be appointed to represent me.

5. I know that I have a right to plead "Not Guilty," and I know that if I do plead "Not Guilty," I can persist in that plea.

6. I know that I have a right to a trial by jury, and I know that if I stand trial by a jury:

(a) I have a right to the assistance of counsel at every stage of the proceeding.

(b) I have a right to see and observe the witnesses who testify against me.

(c) My attorney can cross-examine all witnesses who testify against me.

(d) I can call the witnesses I want to call, and I can obtain subpoenas to require the attendance and testimony of those witnesses. If I cannot afford to pay for the appearance of a witness and mileage fees, the government will pay them.

(e) I cannot be forced to incriminate myself and I do not have to testify at any trial.

(f) If I do not want to testify, the jury will be told that no inference adverse to me may be drawn from my election not to testify.

(g) The government must prove each and every element of the offense charged against me beyond a reasonable doubt.

(h) It requires a unanimous verdict of a jury to convict me.

(i) If I were to be convicted, I could appeal, and if I could not afford to appeal, the government would pay the costs of the appeal, including the services of appointed counsel.

7. Under a plea of guilty, there will not be a trial of any kind.

8. I know there is ^{if DENY OK RLO} no appellate review of any lawful sentence imposed under a plea of guilty. I also know that the right to appeal a sentence is waived, a defendant may appeal a sentence imposed in violation of law, or in light of the factors listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the sentence is unreasonable.

9. I know the United States may appeal the sentence imposed upon me in this case only if the sentence is imposed in violation of law, or in light of the factors listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a), the sentence is unreasonable.

10. Fully understanding my limited right to appeal my sentence, as explained above, and in consideration of the concessions and/or commitments made by the United States in this plea agreement, I knowingly, voluntarily and expressly waive my right to appeal any sentence imposed upon me, and the manner in which the sentence is determined, on any of the grounds set forth in Title 18, United States Code, Section 3742 or on any ground whatever, except, (1) a sentence above the maximum penalty provided in the statute of conviction as set forth in paragraph 2 above; and (2) a sentence above the high-end of the guideline range as determined by the district court at sentencing, or, in the event that no such determination is made by the district court, a sentence above the high-end of the guideline range as set forth in the final presentence report.

I also knowingly, voluntarily and expressly waive my right to challenge my sentence, and the manner in which the sentence is determined, in any collateral review motion, writ or other procedure, including but not limited to a motion brought under Title 28, United States Code, Section 2255.

I understand that this waiver of my appeal and collateral review rights concerning my sentence shall not affect the government's right to appeal my sentence pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3742(b). However, I understand that the United States agrees that if it appeals my sentence, I am released from my waiver.

I further understand and agree that the word "sentence" appearing throughout this waiver provision is being used broadly and applies to all aspects of the Court's sentencing authority, including, but not limited to, (1) sentencing determinations; (2) the imposition of imprisonment, fines, supervised release, probation, and any specific terms and conditions thereof; and (3) any orders of restitution.

11. I know that under a plea of guilty the judge may ask me questions, after I have promised to tell the truth, about the offense to which the plea is entered. The questions, if asked on the record and in the presence of counsel, must be answered by me and, if I give false answers, I can be prosecuted for perjury.

12. I understand that in order for me to found guilty of the charge set forth in Count Six of the indictment, the government must prove each of the following elements of 18 U.S.C. § 1623(a), False Material Declaration Before a Grand Jury, beyond a reasonable doubt:

1. I made a declaration after making a promise to tell the truth before a grand jury;
2. such declaration was false;
3. I knew the declaration was false; and,
4. the false declaration was material to the grand jury's inquiry.

I stipulate and agree that the following facts accurately describe my conduct. They provide a basis for the Court to accept my guilty plea and for calculating the sentence in my case:

On or about March 29, 2006 I appeared before a federal grand jury in Salt Lake City, Utah. After promising to tell the truth I gave the following answers to the following questions:

QUESTION: Well, let me ask you: Do you know what Rocky Mountain Pizza Company is?

ANSWER: A company that I used to work for.

QUESTION: Do you know who owns it?

ANSWER: I don't right now.

QUESTION: Do you know who did own Rocky Mountain Pizza Company?

ANSWER: I don't recall who the owners were.

QUESTION: Who all worked there? How did you get your job at Rocky Mountain Pizza Company?

ANSWER: I was hired by – I think it was my dad who hired me. I don't remember who. It could have been my dad.

QUESTION: Your dad?

ANSWER: Could have been.

At the time I made the foregoing statements I knew them to be false in that they were not completely correct. More particularly I knew that David Beagley was an owner of Rocky Mountain Pizza Company, and that Dale Lee was an owner of at least one of the three entities that included Rocky Mountain Pizza. These statements were material to the grand jury's investigation.

13. The only terms and conditions pertaining to this plea agreement between the defendant and the United States are as follows:

A. The defendant agrees:

(1) To plead guilty to Count Six of the Indictment.

B. The United States agrees:

(1) To recommend that the defendant's offense level under the Sentencing Guidelines be decreased by two or three levels, as appropriate, for acceptance of responsibility if, in the opinion of the United States, the defendant clearly demonstrates acceptance of responsibility for her offense, as set forth in Section 3E1.1 of the Sentencing Guidelines.

(2) To move to dismiss Counts 1 through 5 and 7 through 8 of the Indictment at time of sentencing.

(3) Not to oppose the defendant's motion for a downward departure based on the defendant's family circumstances under U.S.S.G. § 5H1.6.

14. I understand that if I knowingly violate any local, state or federal law, except for minor traffic violations, between now and the time of my sentencing, such offense may constitute a violation of this plea agreement. I also understand that the Court will decide whether a violation of the plea agreement has occurred. If the Court finds that I have breached this agreement by violating any law, I understand that the Court may relieve the government of all obligations and commitments in this plea agreement while leaving intact my plea of "Guilty."

15. I understand that the Court can make no decision as to what the sentence will be until the Presentence Report has been received and reviewed by the judge. I further understand that the Court is not obligated in any way to follow the recommendation of the government concerning sentencing matters. If the Court does not follow the government's recommendation, I know that I will not be allowed to withdraw my plea of guilty.

16. I understand that the Court can and will consider all available information in determining my sentence. I also understand that if I am sentenced to prison, such information may be considered by prison officials in making decisions concerning my incarceration.

17. I know I have a right to ask the Court any questions I wish to ask concerning my rights, or about these proceedings and the plea.

* * * *

I make the following representations to the Court:

1. I am 36 years of age. My education consists of 2 years college. I can read and understand English. (no degree)
2. No threats or promises of any sort have been made to me to induce me or to persuade me to enter this plea, other than those made within this document.
3. No one has told me that I would receive probation or any other form of leniency because of my plea, other than those made within this document.
4. I have discussed this case and this plea with my lawyer as much as I wish to.
5. I am satisfied with my lawyer.
6. My decision to enter this plea was made after full and careful thought, with the advice of counsel, and with a full understanding of my rights, the facts and circumstances of the case and the consequences of the plea. I was not under the influence of any drugs, medication or intoxicants when the decision to enter the plea was made and I am not now under the influence of any drugs, medication or intoxicants.
7. I have no mental reservations concerning the plea..
8. I understand and agree to all of the above. I know that I am free to change or delete anything contained in this statement. I wish to make no changes because all of the statements are correct.
